NEW TREE RANCH

HEALDSBURG, NAPA SONOMA

New Tree Ranch is an exquisite pastoral estate set in Sonoma county's stunning Dry Creek Valley. With 120 pristine acres of Pacific Redwood Forest at guest disposal, residents are fully immersed in the majestic nature of California's winemaking heartland. The residence comprises an exceptional ranch home, expansive self-sustainable farm, and a romantic outdoor glamping setup. A gorgeous bucolic setting beckons relaxation while the ranch offers the rare opportunity for familiarization with Biodynamic farming practices.

Gorgeous interiors toe the line between country home rusticism and contemporary chic elegance. Oversized windows embrace an alluring seating area smattered with a buxom leather sofa and lounge, convened around a grandiose wood-burning stone fireplace. Stunning antique etageres are littered with worldly trinkets, while the bold timber accents blend harmoniously with a splash of aqua in a beautiful post-modern seating arrangement. An intuitive floorplan blends seamlessly between common rooms, an obtuse two-sided fireplace doubling down on pastoral comfort. A grandiose chef's kitchen abounds with counter space curating a place of spontaneity and congregation ideal for gastronomic exploration and epicurean indulgence. A touch of old-world Hollywood glamor graces the window-lined hall with a glossy grand piano and choice decor complimenting a stone accent wall. New tree Ranch presents four lavish ensuite bedrooms equipped with king-sized bedding.

The exteriors flaunt a solar-heated swimming pool, embraced by alluring sun chairs and hammocks. Lush pastoral scenes invite alfresco dining, a bocce court, and a nearby lake, providing a world of adventure and water recreation for guests. Far more than a luxury getaway, this home offers an onsite animal farm, completing a lovely ranching experience for curious guests. The estate also has an inflatable jacuzzi. Few guests have proven impervious to the infectious charms of this phenomenal Napa Valley luxury rental.

NAPA SONOMA

HEALDSBURG

Four words to sum up the Napa Valley are: Elegance, opulence, sunshine and warmth. Many consider the valley to be one of the world’s greatest wine-producing regions. In fact, there are more than 500 wineries to choose from, so visiting wine connoisseurs usually enlist the help of professionals to search the valley for top-rated wines to take back to their cellars. Whether you’re an avid oenophile scouring the region for superb vintages or out on a mothers day getaway wining and dining, the Napa Valley delights guests far and wide.
